COVID -19 - DON BOSCO NERUL REACHING OUT

UPDATE: 17th May 2020

The Parish of Ghansoli through Fr. Sunil the parish priest requested some help for the poor families as the lockdown has been extended and resources depleted.

Ghansoli village is made up of lanes called Alis. ie. Chicholi Ali, Mhatre Ali and Rankar Ali the people here live in buildings, have been working in the manufacturing units in the companies around that area but they have been out of work and out of pay as their jobs are not ones they could work from home. The villagers have given their rooms on rent to many of these casual labourers, who are now facing a great challenge for food. The neighbouring Rabale has many slums. They are at the moment in the red zone, many being daily wage earners have missed out on any income. Hence the Parish has reached out to them with the assistance of Don Bosco Nerul for dry ration of food grains and other essentials.

Thank you for your continued Prayers and Support!

Stay safe, stay Blessed!
